7th January 1954] [Sri K. P. Kuttikrishnan Nair]

will be affected and it is but natural that there will be some people who are dissatisfied with any kind of legislation. I hope that after the announcement of the Hon. the Chief Minister the Opposition will co-operate and see that this Bill is passed into law in this session itself. I know that the Praja Socialist Party has been co-operating and they desire that this legislation should be passed in this session itself. I am sure that Sri Narayanan Nambiar and his party are likewise anxious. Everyone in Malabar is anxious that this Bill should be passed into law and I am sure that every hon. Member will co-operate with us and see that this Bill is passed to-morrow itself, if possible. Thank you, Sir, for having given me an opportunity to explain the position."

MR. SPEAKER :—" The question is—

'That the Malabar Tenancy (Amendment) Bill, 1953, as amended by the Joint Select Committee be taken into consideration.' "

The motion was put and carried.

MR. SPEAKER :—" The House will now adjourn and meet again at 9 a.m. on Friday, 8th January 1954."

The House then adjourned.
